SS Great Britain

Souvenir Offer

Following on from the success of the 2002 Conference, Conquering Uncertainty: The Contribution of the SS Great Britain, presented by the Royal Historical Society of Victoria, we would like to offer you the chance to purchase some interesting reproduction souvenirs. Also available are the Conference Papers, which include cameos from descendants of SS Great Britain immigrants.

Travel Was Tough 100 Years Ago is a brochure by Neil A. McLennan, featuring excerpts from the Diary of John McLennan and notes on the History of the SS Great Britain. The SS Great Britain Colour Sketch by Boyd Fox was specially commissioned for the Conference, (42cm x 31cm). The Menu is a facsimile copy of a dinner menu presented to passengers on July 6th, 1861, and The Rules of the Ship is a facsimile copy from the RHSV archives.
