

The Victorian Community History Awards are proudly presented by Public Record Office Victoria and the Royal Historical Society of Victoria.

The Awards recognise excellence in historical storytelling. The range of award categories reflects the variety of formats that can be used to reach and enrich the lives of Victorians through history.

Please read the conditions of entry before entering.

Entries close 2pm Friday 21 July 2017.

The Awards Ceremony will be held in October 2017.

Conditions of entry

Only Australian organisations and/or residents are eligible to enter the Victorian Community History Awards 2017. Subject matter is limited to history primarily relating to the State of Victoria or projects that encourage greater access to Victorian collections.

State Government Departments as defined in the Victorian Government Directory, current Councillors and paid staff of the Royal Historical Society of Victoria are ineligible to apply.

This official entry form must accompany each entry. Entries must be received by 2pm Friday 21 July 2017. Late entries will be return unopened.

Book entries must include a copy of the publication, and non-print entries must be provided in an accessible format ie. DVD, weblink, exhibition launch photographs etc.

Public Record Office Victoria and the Royal Historical Society of Victoria reserve the right to exhibit or publish, in whole or in part, any submissions to promote the Awards.

Entries must be original works of the applicant. Fiction is not accepted.

Entries will not be returned to the applicant.

Judges' decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Entrants' work must be completed (ie. published, exhibited or launched) between 1 July 2016 and 30 June 2017. Written evidence is required to demonstrate completion date.

All entries must be provided in a finished format - manuscripts, drafts and proofs will not be accepted. Entries must be in English or have an English translation.

All works must be the property of the entrant and any publishers submitting an entry on behalf of an author must include author's details and acknowledge that the author consents.

Victorian Community History Awards 2017

Entry Form

Victorian Community History Award $5000

This award recognises the most outstanding community history project submitted in any category.

Nominate for one of the following categories:

Collaborative Community History Award $2000

This award recognises the best community collaborative work which involves significant contributions from several individuals, groups or historical societies.

Local History Project Award $2000

This award recognises activities that enhance access to records of significance to local communities. The project should increase access, awareness and participation in history on a local or community level including, but not limited to, digitising, indexing and/or cataloguing of resources and original research.

History Publication Award $2000

A non-fiction publication or e-book on Victorian history which could include a biography or a story of social, urban, institutional, regional or cultural history. Make sure to include a copy of the publication with your entry.

Local History - Small Publication Award $1500

For the best small, limited run publication or e-book which features Victorian local, cultural or social history. Make sure to include a copy of the publication with your entry.

Cultural Diversity Award $1500

Projects and publications which highlight the cultural diversity of Victoria.

Multimedia History Award $1500

For the best presentation of history which uses non-print media and has a broad community reach. This project can include, but is not limited to, multimedia exhibitions, radio, mobile applications, website, digital video/podcasts or online applications. Make sure to include a weblink, DVD, or usb of the project with your entry.

Historical Interpretation Award $1500

This is for unique formats of historical representation. Applicants are encouraged to submit history related experiences told through physical exhibitions, artistic interpretation, history walks and tours. Make sure to include photographs and/or other materials that reflect the experience of the project in your entry.

Centenary of WW1 Award $1500

This year judges will again award a special prize for the best work or project submitted in any category on the impact of World War One on Victoria or Victorians.

History Article (Peer Reviewed) $500

This award recognises the best essay or article published in a recognised peer reviewed journal that illuminates the history of Victoria or Victorians. Articles must be written in a scholarly style using appropriate conventions of citation and be formally reviewed by referees.

Please include a 50 word project summary below.
