Moving Forward

Location The Officers' Mess Upstairs,

239 A'Beckett St, Melbourne (please note there is no lift or wheelchair access).

9.30am Arrival, registration and a cuppa.

10.00am Introduction of RHSV attendees, HVSG attendees, host group, and members of visiting groups, & housekeeping arrangements.

10.15am Jillian Hiscock, RHSV Collections Manager & Volunteer Coordinator: Managing digital archives, the RHSV experience. Jillian will talk about what the enormous change in the digital landscape means for historical societies.

10.45am Panel of three: Sue Thompson on New home, new approach: the new Lilydale & District Historical Society; George Fernando on The role of the treasurer; and David Langdon on CSI Richmond – Conservation, Study and Investigation.

11.15am Morning tea

11.30am Dr Jan Penney: Crown Land Leases - some advice. Crown Land Leases are different from other sorts of leases and have some quirks. And many traps for young players! Jan has had some years experience writing and using Crown Land Leases for both commercial tenants and not for profit tenants such as historical societies. She will discuss some examples of each.

12.30pm Lunch

1.15pm David Taylor, Manager Community Archives Access Services: Places of Deposit program. This presentation on the Places of Deposit (PODs) Program managed by the Public Record Office Victoria will outline the future direction for this important initiative which aims to connect Victorians with local temporary public records.

2.00pm Question and answer time. An opportunity for attendees to ask questions and share their successes and concerns.

2.30pm Finish with a tour of RHSV Drill Hall and Genealogical Society of Victoria archives.
